

K-loves christian radio message and music is strong and uplifting to me every day.
All of my friends and family are encouraged daily by this christian music.
This station helps to ground this community in the word of GOD and it would benefit all communities to have such a radio station.